PERSONAL .- Among those to whom special credit is due for the success of the late fair none is more deserving of mention than Mr. Samuel Pullman, of Mt. Ecio, near this city. Mr. Pullman not only gave the use of his horses, implements, &c., but devoted his indi vidual attention to the making and preparation of the track, and the keeping of the cattle stalls in order. He was on head at all hours and was a host in hims: lf.

Mr. Mercer Slaughter, of the general ticket office of the Midland Road, had charge of the arrangements for the presidential visit to Mont pelier, on Wednesday, and deserves great eredit for the manger in which everything was Religious, -- Rt. Rev. J. J. Keine, Bishop of Richmond, will dedicate the new Catholic Church at Lesburg to morrow. It is expected that a large congregation will be present.

Rev. Dr. W. P. Harrison, chaplain of the House of Representatives and pastor of the Mt. Vernon Place M. E. Church South, in Washinton, will preach in the M. E. Church South, of this city, to morrow morning. The doctor is regarded as one of the most able and elequent divines in the Southern Church and will no doubt have a large audience.

The revival services in the M. P. Church continue with unabated vigor and ten persons have already confessed coversion.

SUNK .- Capt. Thrasher, of the schooner N. II. Skioner, at Georgetown, from Gardiner. Me., reports that on the 31 iast., when off Cape Cod, he was run into by the schooner S. Rockhill, of Bangor, and the Rockhill had all her head rigging carried away and her bow crushed in. Captain Thrasher took her in tow and towed her notil eleven o'clock the follow ing day, when she suck off Vineyard Sound in ave fathoms of water. Captain Thrasher went aboard, unstripped her, and landed her crew and all her sails at Vineyard Haven. The sunken vessel was loaded with 175 tons of coal, and was bound for Portsmouth, N. II. The vessel and cargo are a total less. The N. Ii. Skinner was slightly damaged.

EXTENSIVE TANNERIES .- The attention of the readers of the Gazette is called to the advertisement of Messrs. C. C. Smoot & Sons, in another column. The Mesirs. Smoot bave the oldest and most extensive leather establishment in the State, employing two tanneries, one in this city and another at Sperryville, Rappahannock mnotry. Both tanneries are provided with all the modern improvements, and reflect great credit upon their proprietors and managers. Those wishing to purchase leather, or sell hides and skins, could not do better than to call on or correspond with Messrs. Smoot & Sons.

A MULE STORY .- On Thursday last Cap'ain James Quinton, the popular commander of the steamer Harry Lodor purchased at a constable's sale, in this city, a fine mule. The animal was earried to the captain's house at Farmington, Md., where it celebrated its arrival by kicking the captain over and seriously damaging the ligestive organs of Dr. Towles, a neighbor. The captain, nothing daunted, bought another mule this morning, but announces his intention of keeping near the "bow" of the animals here-

FEAST OF TABERNACLES .- The Hebrew feast of the Tabernacies commenced last evening. The feast commemorates the time that the Israelites dwelt in tents, in the wilderness, and continues during eight days. It is not strictly observed by the Reformed congregalions, like that in this city. In some places labernacles are constructed in the open air where the meals are eaten. The tabernacles are often handsomely and expensively decerated with flowers, evergreens and pictures.

He had spokeo but a few minutes, when Hinton struck Bolling back of the ear from behind. Further disturbance, however, was prevented by the officers of the law. On his way home to Potersburg Col. Bolling was overtaken by Hinton and feur others. Col. Bolling said to Hinton that he would settle with him at some future time, when Hioton sprung from his earriage, and, while he held Bolling, Frank Russell, the city auditor, beat him with a stick over the head and arms, and Hinton called to his friends to shoot the damn secundrel." The Staunton correspondent of the Richmond Dispatch says: "A thrilling scene was witnessed near the valley railroad depot yesterday afternoon. Rear the depot is some trestle-work over a ravine about forty feet deep, and across this trestle is a narrow plank for foot passengers. Just as Mr. Thomas O'Donnell and his wife reached the middle of the plank in crossing, a team of horses, frightened by a locomotive, broke from the wagon and came rushing blindly to the trestle. They attempted to cross, but when a few feet from the lady and gentleman, who stood motionless, unabla to retreat, they fell over the trestle into the road below. Outrages. Last Monday night seven negroes outraged four white women near Mount Vernon, Posey county, Indiana. Thursday night Deputy Sheriff Oscar Thomas, while attempting to arrest some of them, was killed by Daniel Williamson, colored. Yesterday morning a mob of nearly three thousand gathered, shot Williamson, hanged two others and are preparing to hang the rest. Great excitement prevails. An outrage was committed upon a young girl living about three miles from Fairmont, W. Va., by a tramp yesterday morning. The cries of the girl brought a man to her assistance, who clubbed the villian almost senseless. He was lodged in the county jail yesterday, and frequent threats are made that he will be lynched, so great is the indignation.
